Quarter: January-February-March 2009

MAIN / SECONDARY ISSUE DESCRIPTION	TITLE	PROGRAM	START DATE	AIR TIME	RUNS
Economy / Job Loss It's been a brutal week for job cuts in Southern Oregon -- from wood products to health care to retail. Added up, roughly 450 people learned in just the last week that they'll be out of work.	Job Losses	News	1/16/2009	5p, 6p, 11p	3
Services / Armed Services Local game enthusiasts got an up-close look at what it's like to be in the National Guard. More than just a good time, the video game tournament was also a chance for the Guard to recruit new members. The winner of this tournament gets to play in the national online tournament later this month.	National Guard	News	1/17/2009	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Law Enforcement / Facilities A new Sheriff's substation is now open in Gold Hill, a year and a half after the city lost its police department, allowing for more patrols. While only a test, if the station does end up saving the Sheriff's office money in the long run, it may consider adding a substation somewhere in the South part of the county.	Sheriff Substation	News	1/19/2009	6p, 11p, 6a	3
Community Services / Volunteerism Jackson County Democrats in Medford followed President-Elect Obama's call to a day of service by bringing in donations and volunteers for local organizations that need help. They focused their services on Habitat for Humanity, the Salvation Army, and the Humane Society.	Day of Service	News	1/19/2009	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
Community Services / Donations The Gospel Rescue Mission is getting a grant to finish building a new shelter. A new Federal housing program grant recently awarded the Mission with nearly a million dollars to keep building, but that is about $800,000 short of what is needed to complete the project.	Gospel Mission	News	1/19/2009	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a	4
Josephine County / Budgets Last month, we reported Grants Pass city employees are turning down a cost of living raise this year so the city will have some extra money. The City Council is questioning their intentions, turning the intended gift into a heated debate between city staff and some newly-elected city council members.	GP Raises	News	1/20/2009	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Education / Teaching Teachers in Medford have been working without a contract for 6 months. They are holding a silent rally in hopes of pushing negotiations forward. The rally comes, though, as Governor Kulongoski announces a $650 million State budget shortfall. Schools could be hit the hardest.	Teacher Contracts	News	1/20/2009	5p, 11p, 6a, 12p	4
Economy / Employment Unemployment in Oregon is at a 23 year high. The unemployment rate for December was 9%, up from 8% in November and the highest since April 1985. The State lost 9700 jobs in December. Oregon has the fifth highest unemployment rate in the Nation.	Unemployment	News	1/20/2009	5p, 6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	9
Services / State The growing unemployment rate is putting big demands on the region's food stamp program. 25% more people are asking for assistance this year compared to last and people are waiting weeks if not months for benefits. Roughly one in every seven Oregonians is now on food stamps.	Food Stamps	News	1/21/2009	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	7
Transportation / Facilities The controversial Welcome Center along I-5 in Ashland picked up support when Jackson County Commissioners held a public hearing. ODOT says this area in Ashland would be an ideal spot, while residents say this rest area would be dangerous. Commissioners will continue hearing testimony from both supporters and opponents for as long as it takes before making a decision. News10 follows the story.	Welcome Center	News	1/21/2009	6p, 11p, 6a, 12p	6
Law Enforcement / Gangs A group is working to assess how big the gang problem is in Southern Oregon. It is a result of the Youth Gang Prevention Intervention conference held in October. The process is expected to take up to two years, as leaders go to local businesses, schools and communities to gather information.	Gang Assessment	News	1/22/2009	5p, 6p, 6a, 12p	4
